“ Frank had a heart of GOLD since the day we met @ the age of 12 at Edison Jr High he became more than a friend he became my brother. No matter if we talked in days months or even years when we did it always seem as if it was just minutes that we had talked. I valued our friendship he was the type of person that cared for everyone's well being. This is not a good bye but till we meet again buddy

“ My husband was a loving, gentle man that loved his family and friends. He came from very humble beginnings and died a humble man. I loved my husband for so many reasons but his kind heart was my favorite reason. RIP my love, no more pain, no more suffering.
